

MACOMB POLICE DEPARTMENT
COMPLAINANTS STATEMENT
OF POLICE PERSONNEL MISCONDUCT

It is the policy of the Macomb Police Department to thoroughly investigate all complaints of alleged misconduct made against any member or representative of the Macomb Police Department.

We will conduct an investigation into alleged acts of misconduct on the part of any employee or representative of this department. The investigation will be thorough, accurate and objective. Such investigation shall include formal statements from all parties concerned, the gathering and preservation of any physical evidence relative to the case, and all other written information bearing on the matter. When the investigation has been completed, a written report will be submitted to the Chief of Police with written recommendations.

You will be notified of the results of the investigation and our official position regarding your complaint as soon as we have finished the entire investigation and we have had a chance to carefully study the facts brought out by our investigation.
